

Fire Talks with Mikkal

In addition to workshops in North America, at Crows Nest, and Europe, Mikkal is available for shamanic consultation sessions, called 'fire talks' for personal healing as well as apprenticeship and training. These sessions run $150.00 USD per hour and are scheduled as needed to suit your schedule. Time zones are coordinated. Fire Talk sessions are also available on SKYPE.

'Fire Talks' take place in a sacred space, usually around a fire, or each person sitting by their altar and candle if by long distance. The transaction is heart-to-heart, what in the curanderismo healing traditions of the Americas is called "platicas del corazon" (conversations of the heart). They are based on the ancient shamanic wisdom of "corazon cura corazon" (heart heals heart). They are very deep, unguarded, and open exchanges that truly get to the heart of things, and support you in finding a way forward, and in learning. You might bring to mind the dialogues and inquiries taking place between don Juan Matus and the young Toltec apprentice Carlos Castaneda, sitting on the miranda, or out in a desert canyon sitting around a fire under the stars. A heart talk is a relationship form that works for healing (trauma, soul loss, grief), for discovering or enacting a vision for one's life and work, and for apprenticeship/training in shamanic healing and counseling or coaching practice. It is also the transpersonal format in which Mikkal works with individuals undergoing spiritual emergencies, difficulties with altered states, visionary activity that is confusing or problematic or troubling: kundalini awakenings, powerful dreams and other such phenomena in extreme states.

The procedure for contacting Mikkal to schedule a fire talk is to email admin@crowsnestshamanism.com or call (269) 262-1919 to arrange an appointment. Once an appointment is made, you will receive an email to make payment.
